LEBANON VA MEDICAL CENTER RECEIVES 2009 VA SECRETARY'S LABOR RELATIONS AWARD

The Lebanon VA Medical Center is the recipient of the FY 2009 Veterans Affairs Secretary's Labor Management Relations Award in the category of "Overall Achievement." The medical center and partnership staff will be recognized and receive this award at a ceremony scheduled for June 4, 2010, in VA Central Office, Washington, D.C.

This Secretary's award to acknowledge successful labor-management relationships was established in 2002 and recognizes those labor-management relationships that have the greatest impact on improving services to Veterans and improving the VA's workplace. The Lebanon VA Medical Center is recognized as a facility that exemplifies this collaborative relationship.
