LEBANON VA MEDICAL CENTER VITA SITE

Lebanon VA Medical Center will be a Voluntary Income Tax Assistance (VITA) Program site on March 12, 2011, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m., in Building 18, Social Room. The VITA Program offers tax preparation services by Internal Revenue Service (IRS) certified volunteers to low to moderate income people who cannot prepare their own returns. Free income tax preparation and e-filing assistance will be provided for Federal, State and Local taxes for Veterans whose income was less than $50,000 for 2010.

This site will accept appointments for Veterans only. This may include VA employees who are Veterans, as well as active duty military.

Appointments and pre-screenings are required and may now be scheduled by calling 717-273-9328. Make sure you tell the scheduler you want your appointment with the Lebanon VA site.

The VITA program is supported by:

*United Way of Lebanon County
Community Action Partnership
Lebanon Valley College
Potential Reentry Opportunities in Business and Education (PROBE)
Retired and Senior Volunteer Program
Lebanon VA Medical Center*
