LEBANON VA MEDICAL STAFF CELEBRATE NATIONAL HOSPITAL WEEK

The Lebanon VA Medical Center staff celebrates National Hospital Week the week of May 8-14, 2011. The National Hospital Week Committee has several activities planned for staff at the medical center and the community based outpatient clinics.

Smart Choice meals are available at the facility's Canteen Monday-Friday, walking during lunch Tuesday and Thursday, and an ice cream social Wednesday. Wrapping up the week is an Employee Wellness Fair on Friday, from 10 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

Robert W. Callahan Jr., Director at the Lebanon VAMC states, "It is truly an honor to continue to serve Veterans and to work with excellent staff. This week provides leadership an opportunity to educate staff about ways to take care of themselves so they are prepared to care for our Veterans."
