LEBANON VA MEDICAL CENTER DIRECTOR AND LEBANON CITY MAYOR MEET TO DISCUSS NEIGHBORS HELPING NEIGHBORS

The Honorable Mayor Sherry Capello and Robert W. Callahan Jr., Director, Lebanon VA Medical Center, met today at noon in the Directors Suite of the medical center. The purpose of the visit was for Mayor Capello to learn more about services the Lebanon VA provides to Veterans, how City of Lebanon and the VA can improve collaboration, efficiency and expand business opportunities.

Callahan provided an extensive overview of the vision, mission and expansion occurring at the Lebanon VA.

Mayor Capello was provided a brief tour of the one million square foot complex that provides complete healthcare to over 47,000 Veterans residing in the 9 county regions. The Mayor talked with Veterans while visiting the Hospice Units', new $7 million dollar Rehabilitation Medicine Center, Emergency Department and the Intensive Care Unit.

Mayor Capello expressed she was very impressed with the quality and full spectrum of care provided to Veterans. Capello and Callahan plan to continue to discuss opportunities for the city and VAMC to collaborate more closely and improve services provided to Veterans within the City of Lebanon.
