NATIONAL POW/MIA RECOGNITION DAY OBSERVED

AT

LEBANON VA MEDICAL CENTER

- What: National POW/MIA Recognition Ceremony
- When: Friday, September 16, 2011 11 a.m.
- Who: 100 Prisoner of War Veterans and Missing in Action family members are registered to attend the ceremony. Eighty-two Representatives and Deputies from local Veterans Service Organizations and local dignitaries are also scheduled to attend.
- Where: Lebanon VA Medical Center
1700 South Lincoln Ave.
Lebanon, PA. 17042
Building 24, Gymnasium

Background: Each year, Lebanon VA Medical Center (VAMC) recognizes a special group of Americans - those who have endured exceptional personal hardship and suffering to defend the ideals upon which this great nation was founded. On the third Friday in September, Lebanon VAMC honors the sacrifices and remarkable determination of Veterans captured as prisoners of war. We also remember those who remain unaccounted for and wish their families some small comfort in knowing America has not forgotten them. Keynote speaker is Captain Brain T. Drapp, Supply Corps; United States Navy.

Contact: Scott W. Harman, Lebanon VA Medical Center, Public Affairs Specialist, at Scott.Harman@va.gov or 717-228-6079 or BB 717-304-4041.
