Lebanon VA Medical Center Hires Board Certified Dermatologist
Lancaster Doctor is the Son of a Three-War Army Veteran

For Immediate Release – July 19, 2016

LEBANON, Pa. — Lebanon VA Medical Center has hired Dr. Mark Gibbs, a board certified dermatologist, for its specialty dermatology clinic. Dr. Gibbs’ father, who is also a physician, served in three wars during his 34 years in the Army.

Dr. Gibbs said he is honored to serve Veterans at the medical center. His father was a Veteran of the Vietnam War, the Gulf War, and the Global War on Terrorism. “I grew up with the military,” Gibbs said, “I value what Veterans have done. I know what it means to serve, and I look forward to serving the Vets.”

Dr. Gibbs graduated from Penn State University in 2001. He continued his education at the University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine. He completed his internship and residency at the University of Michigan before returning to Pennsylvania to work at the University of Pittsburgh as an assistant professor of dermatology.

Lebanon VA Medical Center is one of 152 medical centers across the United States, which are dedicated to serving the unique needs of America’s Veterans. The VA is the largest health care system in the country, using state of the art technology to improve the health of Veterans from every generation. If you are Veteran, you may be eligible to receive care and benefits from the VA. To speak with an enrollment specialist, call 717-228-6000.
